Kent Memorial Library is on-line!

Search the catalog
Check out the events calendar
See what's new

suffield-library.org

Download the Acorn Catalog app:

Apple

Android

Find us on Facebook:

Find us on Instagram:

The Homebound Service is a free pick-up and delivery service:

- receive books, magazines, movies, and audiobooks
- for patrons of any age residing in Suffield who are unable to visit the library due to a health-related condition or lack of transportation
- no overdue fines
- complete the application and send it to the library or call 860-668-3896

No library card?

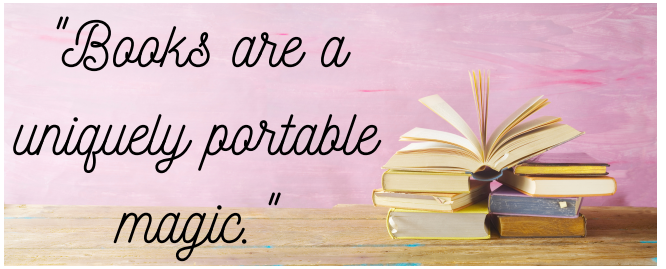
Complete an application for a card during the first homebound visit.

KML

Kent Memorial Library

50 North Main Street
Suffield

Homebound Service



860-668-3896

The Library also has these digital products, easily accessible from your home, if you have a computer or digital device:

Consumer Reports

Fold3 - military records

Connecticut State Library Research Databases including indexes to full text articles in magazines & newspapers such as The Hartford Courant, New York Times, and Wall Street Journal

E-Magazines on Libby

E-Books and E-Audiobooks on Hoopla and Libby

Kent Memorial Library

Homebound Patron Application

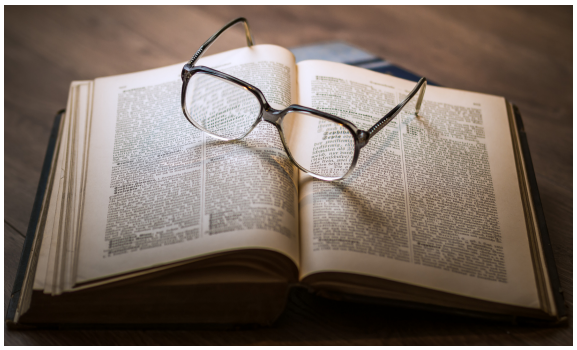
Name (Last, First): _____

Address: _____

_____

Phone/Email: _____

Library Card #: _____

What days are you home for pick-up/delivery?


Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday